It has been said that a teacher is one who brings to the surface what has been waiting to be exposed. The class of 1986 has two very special teachers who have helped to bring out the best in all of us.

The first is Peter "Rat" Rackliffe. He can often be found riding his mountain bike or just happily walking through campus. It is Rat who understands the kid in us all, and at times when we act foolish or get in trouble he is always there to bail us out. He is a teacher who teaches more than Algebra and logarithms. He helps us to think logically. He is a father who is always there to parent us when we need it. Most important of all, he is a friend who stands by us.

John Provencher, otherwise known as John the Maintenance man. There is never a day when John doesn't smile and wave at the students. He makes time for us with simple gestures like a wave or the shouting of "Hello there." John takes us very seriously. He recognizes our struggle with growing up, and he is always there to lend a hand of advice. He is a loving father and in his own right one of the best teachers we'll ever have. Someday maybe he will understand that he taught us some of the most special things.

When it seems that everyone is worried
for themselves,
Buying plans for fallout shelters,
stocking up the shelves,
Living in the fast lane, and staying high at night,
Thinking that by accident we'll blow out all the lights.

Look now at the potter whose wheel
is spinning 'round, Shaping with her hands the past and future from the ground;
Cups that will be filled and drunk, so warm in wintertime,
Plates and bowls for dinner served with candlelight and wine:

She believes, she believes,
By her work it's so easy to see
That the future is more than the following day,
It's fashioned securely in the clay.

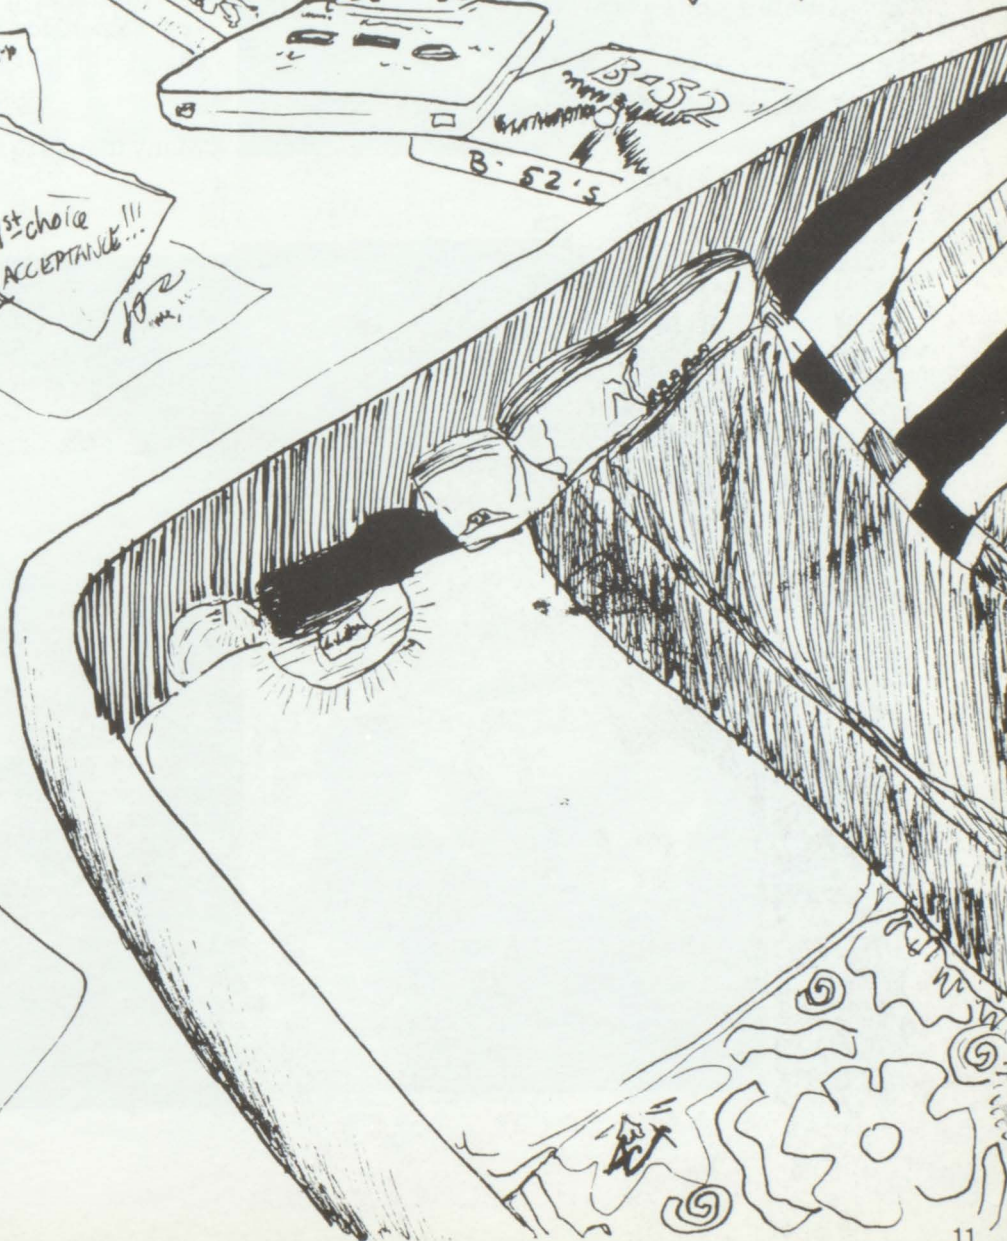

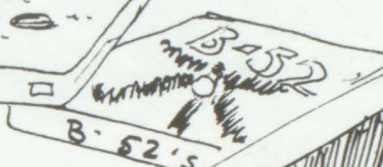

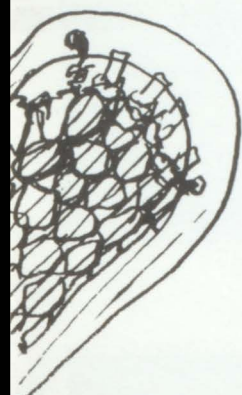

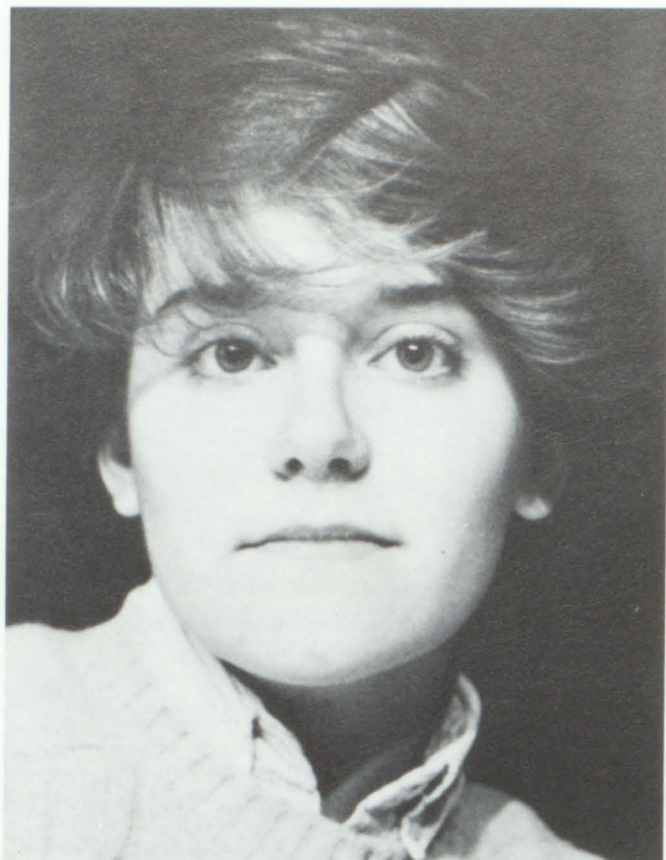

Every end is also a new beginning.

"He who reveals to me what is in me and helps me to externalize it in fuller terms of self-trust, is my real helper, for he assists me in the birth of those things which he knows are in me and in all men."

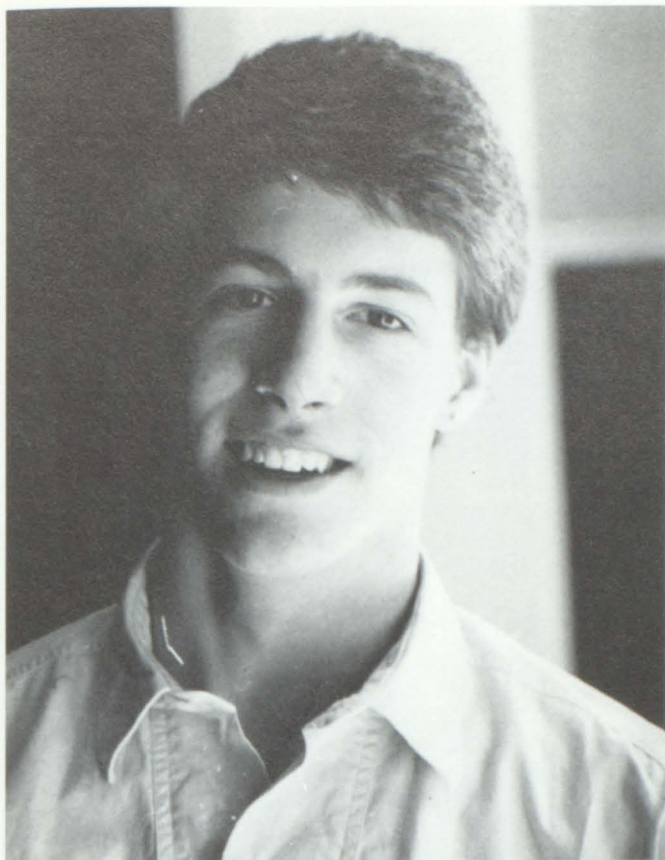

— W. John Murray

Many thanks to all my "real helpers."

TOM CANNEY

All of life is learning, and one learns through personal experience. Thank you to the people who made these experiences happen.

MICHAEL BLAKEMORE

While in these days of quiet desperation
 As I wander through the world in which I live
 I search everywhere for some new inspiration
 But it's more than cold reality can give
 If I need a cause for celebration, Or a Comfort I can use to ease my mind, I rely on my imagination. — Joel

LIZ HOPPER

Ghost to change so from one day to another
 Flat gray filters through angelic white
 Of other days; past life only to have altered
 Within hours leaving sudden character
 Understood; a lifeless flat grey
 Comprehesion; angelic white

T. C.

"This too can be experienced with a completely expanded awareness."

"What an absurd amount of energy I have wasted all my life trying to figure out how things "really are" when all the time they weren't."

To Lauren, Tom, Annie, The Hills, Mr. C., Mr. G., And everyone else at Gould and especially Mom and Kevin, without whose love and understanding I wouldn't have been able to find myself. I wish you love and happiness.

SARAH (SALLIE) FISKE

"You can go south in the winter.
Be what you are, a goose.
Honk all the moon out the ocean,
Your clothes can fit you loose."

— Margaret Roche

"To restrict oneself to the familiar is to limit the possibilities for pleasure, and to limit them sharply."

— Daniel T. Politoske

Well after fourteen years I'm ready to leave, but I don't regret a single minute of my life here. Thanks to everyone for everything.

I wanted to say something unique and witty, but I can't think of anything. All I can really say is "thank you" to all the people who have made the last 15 years at Gould such a joy, with special thanks to my 4-year advisor Mr. Wight, and my 17-year advisors, Mom and Dad. I would like to start all over again, but everybody keeps telling me it's time to grow up and move on, so I guess I'd better. I will really miss Gould, but I will always have the wonderful memories of a special school and some very special people.

And miles to go before I sleep.

And miles to go before I sleep."

Winston Churchill

Hey Glenda, thanks for everything. You're the best.

Jules and Care, it was only the beginning, wait until next year! Thanks to my great friends Holmes, Sarah and Laura for always being there.

And Kevin, (sigh!)

Thanks also to Mr. Newell, my terrific friend. Mr. Hill I'll miss you. Flash, who it took only 4 years to figure out why he is called Flash. And of course Mom and Dad.

HORTENSIA GONZALEZ

ERIKA DRESSER

"Certain things they should stay the way they are. You ought to be able to stick them in one of those big glass cases and just leave them alone. I know that's impossible but it's too bad anyway."

— Holden Caulfield

Thanks Gould for four great years!

Nance — Six years of fun. Let's never let it end! Florida last March! Where should we go next? I love ya! Toodles.

Heather — fate kept us together! I guess old friendships can never die! Watch, we'll wind up going to college together! Love ya!

Mollie and Mike — Hey we've had fun.

Arnisha — "Winter, spring, summer or fall . . ." J.T.

Thanks for everything Miss Mellett

Most importantly, Mom, Dad, Derek, and Kido,
Thanks for everything. I love you.

HEATHER THOMPSON

Yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow is only a vision: But today, well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

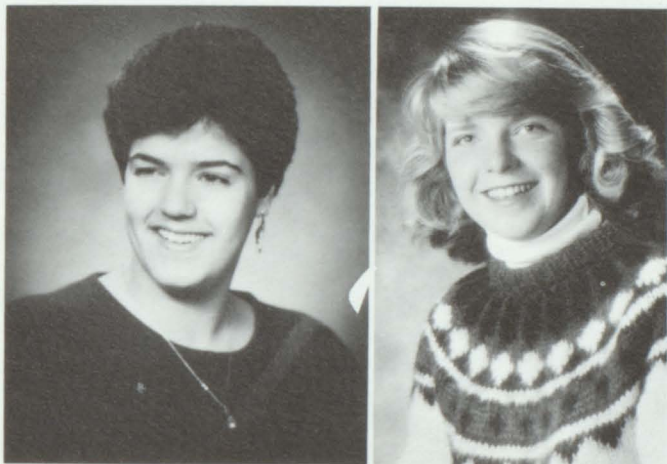

— Donald Pelton

Thanks to mom and Bernie for bringing me to Gould.

Erika: For all those years of staying together, I always knew we would be together in the end.

Mollie and Carrie: Making all those study halls fly by!

Eunice: it was a hell of a year thanks for being there.

ANNE COURCHESNE

As I tried to think of some giant revelation about my growth at Gould, I realized that words can only inadequately describe my feelings. There exists no quotation that can do justice to how much I love Gould Academy. This has been my home for four years, and I somehow feel that my soul will always belong here. I leave with tears, and the solitary hope that I can share with others what Gould has given to me. Dr. O — I have a dream — Tami, Te deseo la paz, gracious. Ms. Lee, I want to be just like you when/if I grow up. Don't ever lose your youthful idealism.

LESLIE ANN SENIOR — SOUP

We shed old roles and mask in the preparation of new parts

As we exit

we think of our performances on this stage and cry to realize that we leave it behind

Yet we are glad to make our entrance on a new stage with style and flair

A dramatic debut into our own new world

Thank you everyone for making my SENIOR year (no pun intended Mr. Davis) my best year here. Alex, Chester, Suite 234, Michael, Kara, and Jon. Candi without you and my crisis I would never have survived.

Suzanne Bates, Debbie Saltz and Big J, when I couldn't be there you helped. Thank you.

Mom and Dad, thank you for Gould. I know you went through as much as I did. I love you.

DEBBIE BROWN

You are one of the rare people who can separate your observation from your perception. You see what is, where most people see what they expect.

— John Steinbeck

I thank you all for making my year at Gould the best it could be. Trudy, you're a great roommate. We've gone through a lot together and I thank you for being there . . . Janet and Alice two more interesting suitemates I probably couldn't find. I'll miss you both . . . Thanks to all the teachers who had faith in my abilities even when I didn't. Mr. Fiske, Ms. Lee, Mr. Chandler, Mrs. Owen, Mr. Cousins, and Mr. McGuire and Mrs. Baker who never thought I'd last past orientation. Believe it or not, I will miss Bethel Me.

Mom, Dad and Lori — thanks for making this year possible

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't: It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all a state of mind.

If you think you're out classed, you are You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the one who thinks he can.

In human affairs of danger and delicacy successful conclusion is sharply limited by hurry. So often men trip by being in a rush. If one were properly to perform a difficult and subtle act, he should first inspect the end to be achieved and then, once he had accepted the end as a desirable he should forget it completely and concentrate solely on the means. By this method he would not be moved to false action by anxiety of hurry or fear. Very few people learn this!

Jenna I wish we could have graduated together. Thanx for the music and much more. To my family up here, thank you for being here and keeping me amused. I love you all! Pat, Ms. Mellet, Uncle Don Jackie, and Mrs. Pooley thank you all for helping me to help myself and not leaving me. Thanks Mogwy, Chay, Pete, and Anne you have each at different times given me much love and support without expecting anything back "and when I needed you you were there" A special thanks to my family for all their support. BRUCE BENNETT CLENDENNING

Memories of Gould,
These are what I will take away.
Disjointed images from a series of events.
Burning boards in the hot of decadence.
Bodies diving for a plastic disc
Ecstatic faces in the physics room.
Another exciting weekend.
Boredom, tiredness, all there is left is existence.
Escaping with music,
The only legal high.
All of a sudden a new experience.
Happiness, what a strange concept.
Thanks to everyone in these images.
Karen, Mike, Jenn, and all the rest,
You all know who you are.
You're all floating around in the collection.
But you will never be forgotten,
The images may be.

Reflection

Each time I see the Upside-Down Man
Standing in the water,
I look at him and start to laugh,
Although I shouldn't oughter.
For maybe in another world
Another time
Another town,
Maybe He is right side up
And I am upside down.

— Shel Silverstein

LEAH GARNETT

There must be a quote about senior quotes, some sort of sarcastic statement about sentimental tidbits that somehow sum up 4 years. I haven't found one yet. Hence I am left to my own devices. There are too many names, places+things to mention without getting into the sentimental tidbit syndrome. Nothing more, no superfluous phrases. Just you understand who you are and why you are. And so I leave with a quiet smile and a quiet thanks.

"Which can say more than this rich praise that you yourself are you." Shakespeare

PATTY GILES

I was hoping to find a nice compact senior quote that wasn't too sentimental or corny, but I couldn't find one to say everything I haven't said in four years. Besides, after four years of saying nothing, I'd rather not break my record.

HOLDEN HALL

Holden Hall, which has been known as the dorm dedicated to total chaos and, through the ages, has been recognized as the foundation and leader in noise, confusion, and bad odors, was at its best in the year 85-86. With a conglomeration of punkers, scholars, and scurvy-dogs, Holden could not help but be an influence, not only on Earth, but in the full Milky Way. With the ominous power of the Vortex assisting, we remained supreme. Everyone on campus took part in the Vortex's bipping, bopping pit of jubilant joy. Yes, all of us here at Holden are happy campers and will forever owe our thanks and gratitude to the enforcers: Mr. Kirk Siegel, Mr. Robert Jessen and the man who has firm control, "Mr. Groovy," Gary Hill.

Commencement 1986

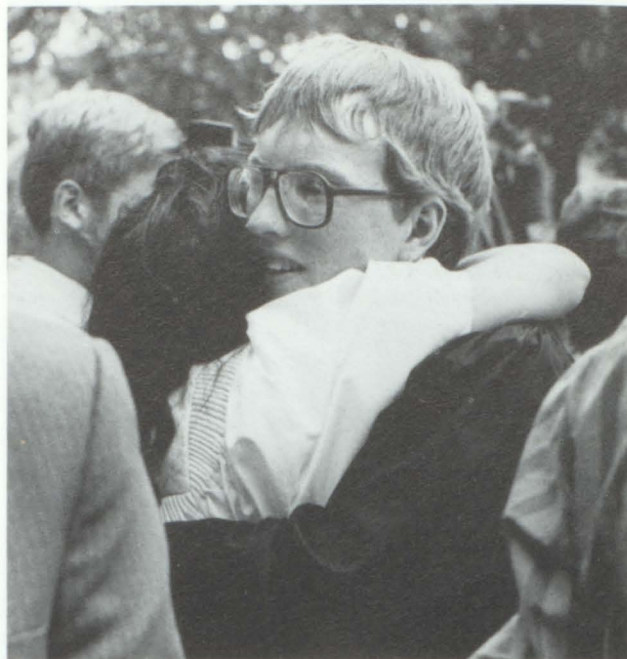

... Lindsey continues to travel and to tell stories, wonderful stories about beautiful places, beautiful things and most of all about the people. He tells stories about people he'd met but often had not, people who no one had ever met and yet who everyone knew. He made fairy tales true, he made listeners listen and listeners laugh, sometimes they cried. He told the truth and revealed the amazing beauty of it all. In his stories he asked questions.

At the end of each of Lindsey's stories he would ask the people listening to turn to the person on their right and tell them the place they had always wanted to go to but never had gone or the thing they had always wanted to do but had never done. He did so because usually it lead to more stories between all kinds of people, people who were different each in their own way, people who learned and taught by telling stories and by asking questions...

Valedictory address

Leah Garnett

May 24, 1986

So, if you had been worried that tomorrow
wouldn't come,
Look to see the ones whose lives are following the sun.
And the hope that springs so clearly from the work they do
Will spread a little further when it finds a place in you.

We believe, we believe.
By our work it's so easy to see That the future is more than the following day
It's fashioned securely in the clay.
